

ABOUT SUSAN'S COOKING SCHOOL

Susan's Cooking School had its beginnings in the kitchen of Polonaise Restaurant, owned and operated by Susan and Dariusz Sady from 1982-2001. We now teach classes in the demonstration kitchen at Cooperative Extension in Oriskany, NY. All classes feature wonderfully fresh, delicious foods prepared from scratch. Bring your questions and awaken your senses. All foods are sampled at the end of each class. You may register online at susanscookingschool.com or by using form on the reverse side.

Directions To Cooperative Extension

Classes are held at Cooperative Extension of Oneida County, 121 Second Street, Oriskany, NY. From Utica, it's easiest to get on NY 840 West, which brings you right to Second Street (building is visible from 840)! There is plenty of parking and no stairs to climb. Just park in the lot and come through the front door. The kitchen is down the hall on your left.

SUSAN'S FALL 2016 CLASSES

Classes held in the kitchen at Cooperative Extension in Oriskany.

Class 1: Autumn Lunch: Tuesday, September 27, 6-8:30pm.

In our first class of the season, we'll be making slow roasted deli-style beef sandwiches with an easy to make tangy barbecue sauce, crispy sweet potato fritters and for dessert - buttery chocolate pear cake with fresh whipped cream.

Class 2: Worldly Treats: Tuesday, October 25, 6-8:30pm.

You'll enjoy learning how to make these ethnically inspired goodies: Pizzas topped with goat cheese, fresh tomatoes, olives and more - on scratch made dough; Crispy spring rolls filled with veggies and pork with a sweet dipping sauce; Honey sesame chicken wings - so good....

Class 3: Holiday Baking: Tuesday, November 22, 6-8:30pm.

Learn how to make a fabulous butter layered croissant bread, Finnish almond cookies (they'll be the first thing to disappear from your cookie platter), and walnut crescents - a family favorite!
